Synopsis

This family of Italian artists arrives dragging their music cart and belongings. In another era, they worked in the best cabarets, and now they have made the streets of the city their best stage. Their personalities, skills, and aspirations make them original and authentic.

Description

This Italian-Neapolitan family of artists is outrageously funny. Fabrizio and Antonela had four children when they were very young, and from a young age until now, they traveled and were inseparable. For many years, they worked in the best hotels and cabarets in Las Vegas. Everything that happens to this family, they share with the people on the street, making them part of their madness. Everyone would like a change in their life, Elisabetta wants a rich boyfriend, Bianca wants passionate love, Bruno wants a Ferrari, Giovanni wants to sing in Eurovision, and Fabrizio and Antonela want a house near the sea. We don't know if any of them will dare to take the step because the Tortellini's are a very close-knit family.
